This is least 70,000 more than was expected, s there are twelve more consus days appears that the estimated total for e city or 3,000,000 names will prob-bly be reached.

No arrests were reported and nothing No arrests were reported and nothing like serious trouble was experienced, except perhaps in two East Side districts whence women registrars telephoned census headquarters last night that police protection was needed because crowds were waiting to register and a handful of declaimers against the census were stirring the night air.

E. P. Goodrich, director of the census for this city, said last night that in many places members of the volunteer force of 40,000 men and women workers literally overwhelmed. Many of the census stations were spened at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, but the schools could not be used for this purpose until 3 o'clock in the afternoon and the school seige, when it started, was tremendous.

Especially good results were reported from the municipal ferryboats, aboard which Staten Island commuters answered questions at their leisure. Tak-
